Reference: The Carlton (19th Hole)

Dear Mr. Thalasinis:

We would like to conclude our agreement by having a formal written document regarding the 19th Hole bid and lease.

As you are aware, I had extensive negotiations with Mike Klein wherein we agreed that the start date would be August 1, 2004. During my last conversation with you, you stated that you were unsure of the contents of Mr. Klein's instructions to you. Subsequently, I contacted Mr. Klein directly and confirmed with him that the rent and lease start date is August 1st. Obviously, it would be unfair to lose a year's worth of rental time because of problems encountered by us that we were not responsible for.

As the 19th Hole opened on August 1st, I await your directive as to where we are to open an R&R account as called for in the lease.

I would like to have these matters resolved as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY A. CAPETOLA

Nicholas Thalasinios
Deputy County Attorney
County of Nassau Department of Parks, Recreations & Museums
Eisenhower Park
East Meadow, New York 11554

Reference: License Agreement (the "Agreement") dated June 11, 2003 by and between Carlton on the Park, Ltd. (the "Licensee") and Nassau County (the "County")

Dear Mr. Thalasinios:

I tried to reach you on five different occasions without a response to my telephone calls and due to the passage of time, felt compelled to respond to your letter of November 2, 2005.

As you are aware, upon the execution of the Agreement authorizing us to proceed with construction of the "19th Hole", I have diligently attempted to open an account pursuant to the R&R Account provisions contained in Article 15.1 and 15.2 of the Agreement. Despite my forwarding to you all signature cards on behalf of Carlton on the Park and the bank designated by the County, North Fork Bank, we have not heard from you. I have also written on several occasions regarding this issue and in fact, met with John Macari, but again received no response.

Thereafter, in August, 2004, the Agreement was amended by Amendment #1 and despite my request for executed copies of same, I have never received them from you. Thereafter, Amendment #2 was executed in May, 2005.

I have complied with all provisions of this Agreement and again I request you forward to me a signed copy of Amendment #1 as provided for in our correspondence and discussions.

Sections 15.1 and 15.2 provided that R&R account shall be signed by "...the County's and Licensee's authorized designees...". To that end, I forwarded you signature cards for North Fork Bank with our signature on it. Now approximately one year after I forwarded this to you, I received your letter suggesting that the licensee should not be signatory which is contrary to the signature and account provisions of the License Agreement which were provided to John Macari but never forwarded to us signed by the County.

Moreover because we did not receive the account designation, we have had to proceed with revenues, repairs and capital improvements based upon the necessity of operation while waiting for the appropriate account cards to be executed by a representative of the County and a representative of The Carlton. It is further necessary that payment be made into the R&R to cover expenditures The Carlton was required to make while we awaited a response from the County.

I would appreciate an immediate meeting with you so that this matter can be amicably resolved.

Very truly yours,

ANTHONY A. CAPETOLA
