ABOUT THE CLUB

The Nassau County Inventors and Entrepreneurs Club will provide novice and seasoned entrepreneurs networking and brainstorming opportunities in a safe and secure environment. With a primary goal of helping turn ideas into action, the Club will provide assistance in all aspects of the inventing process and enable members to tap into critical resources.

Fueled by monthly guest expert speakers, the organization will provide assistance to local inventors in each step of the innovation process.

Local inventor and entrepreneur Brian Fried will head up the Nassau County Club. Fried, active in inventing and entrepreneur circles on Long Island, is an expert on the invention process; he is a successful inventor, author, commentator, radio host.

The Nassau County Industrial Development Agency (IDA) will have a representative at each meeting to discuss the benefits and incentives available to businesses through the IDA.
